A Poem for Epiphany

O God,
who am I now?
Once, I was secure

in familiar territory in my sense of belonging unquestioning of the norms of my culture the assumptions built into my language the values shared by my society.

But now you have called me out and away from home and I do not know where you are leading.
I am empty, unsure, uncomfortable.
I have only a beckoning star to follow.

Journeying God,
pitch your tent with mine so that I may not become deterred by hardship, strangeness, doubt.
Show me the movement I must make toward a wealth not dependent on possessions toward a wisdom not based on books toward a strength not bolstered by might toward a God not confined to heaven but scandalously earthed, poor, unrecognized...

Help me find myself as I walk in others' shoes.
