NO JANUARY ANNIVERSARIES

If the Rt. Rev. Steven Charleston started his own religion:

I sincerely doubt I will ever start my own religion, but I have had some fun imagining what it would be like if I did.

First off, instead of dietary laws where there were some foods you could not eat, in my religion I would encourage eating everything. Literally. Everything. Especially chocolate. Chocolate would actually be sacramental.

And we would have a lot of special holidays, probably a couple of hundred or so. Of course, no work allowed on those special days.

We would need a little gray area on “sin,” so sloth would have to be reconsidered as necessarily being such a bad thing.

Our clergy would also be pastry chefs, so our religious services would include a nice buffet. Think of high tea if it was a religion.

Finally, there would be no doctrine of hell, but if you are bad you will be put on hold by customer service. Same thing.
