We come to church, know Christ in the Eucharist, but we don't stay here in church. The last words of our service are a dismissal: "Go in peace to love and serve the Lord" – sending us out into the world to do God's work. We think of the Ascension similarly. Jesus left not because his risen presence wouldn't be with us, because it is, but because we need to be in the world. Not hanging around the church, or sitting at his tomb, or idly waiting around for him to return. We need to be in the world serving God by acting as God in Jesus showed us.

~ The Rev. Cheryl Fox
from her sermon, "Dwelling in the Heart of God," May 29, 2014
