I sometimes have watched as suitcases tumble off the belts at an airport and wonder what-all folks take for their journey. Sometimes it's obvious and some things are a mystery. I often take too much when I am anxious about dressing for a particular occasion. I take very little when I am going to a place I know and people I trust. Yet Jesus tells us the abundance is given even when we have next to nothing for our journey. A little faith, five loaves and two fish can feed thousands.

*Creator God, who guides each journey, sending brother sun for the daytime,
sister moon for our night's light,
and who brings abundance to the desert.
We are fearful so we overpack and worry.
We often miss the blessings on our way.
Help us to put down the baggage of worry and pick up your promise of plenty.
Let our faith flourish as we journey on.
Make us ever grateful for daily blessings.
Help us to use the few loaves and fish we have,
knowing you will bless the whole world.
Amen.*
