The Lord Watch Over Your Going Out

Do you ever find it odd that worshipers are greeted as they leave the sanctuary?

This rite of transition from comfort to challenge.

The grasping of hands, a warm smile, a word of encouragement as if to say this was just the prelude—worship begins outside these doors.

The one you seek is not here he has gone ahead of you.

You will find him
amid the brokenness of the world.

For true worship does not consist of heartfelt words,
of fervent prayer,
of bread and wine,

But of lives well lived among those who need our love.
