Autumn Equinox Blessing

Blessed are you, autumn, season of unavoidable endings.

You show us how letting go can be a glorious, joyful practice with your spectacular colours.

You model how to hold paradoxes with grace—
the balance of living and dying, relinquishing and receiving,
gathering and sharing.

You know that death is not an ending, but a passage, a transformation into new life.

May we learn these lessons well:
to celebrated with abandon to practice reverence
to surrender completely to embrace tenderly
to love without regret.
